

“My focus is providing a personal and impartial approach to insolvency matters, using local experience and Worrells’ national resources to achieve viable solutions.”

STEPHEN HUNDY

Partner, Canberra

Professional Experience

Stephen joined Worrells in 2011 as a partner and leads our Canberra office. Stephen has worked exclusively in the insolvency industry since 1995 and is able to provide assistance in all areas of personal and corporate insolvency.

Stephen specialises in the provision of clear practical commercial advice on a wide range of business issues for individuals and small to medium enterprises. He adopts a hands-on approach being involved in all aspects of an appointment. His experience includes the following appointments:

- > Voluntary Liquidations
- > Bankruptcies (voluntary & court)
- > Court Winding Ups
- > Voluntary Administrations
- > Deed of Company Arrangements
- > Personal Insolvency Agreements (Part X)
- > Receiverships

In addition, Stephen also has experience in preparing fraud and financial investigation reports, undertaking financial viability reviews and has assisted with shareholder and partnership disputes.

Stephen is available at any time to provide no obligation advice to any party that may find themselves faced with insolvency problems.
