

"I strive for the best results
for all stakeholders,
by being efficient, effective and straightforward,"

CHRISTOPHER DARIN

Partner, Sydney

Professional Experience

Christopher Darin became partner of the Sydney firm in July 2008, after having been in practice on his own since 1996. In being registered as a liquidator and an associate member of the Institute of Chartered Accountants, Chris uses his knowledge and familiarity of the industry when exploring all financial avenues available to a distressed company.

Years of experience has led Chris to have a solid understanding in all aspects of corporate insolvency, corporate advocacy appointments, and assisting directors and companies in dealing with debtors, creditors and other insolvency practitioners.
