Lismore office regularly, giving support to their full-time accountant and local Michael Thomas.

Importantly, both Michael Griffin and Jason Bettles are registered trustees in bankruptcy and registered liquidators. This means the advice provided is relevant and appropriate to the circumstances, so that business owners and directors can make the most and best informed decisions possible, when facing solvency issues.

As the area of insolvency is an evolving specialised area of accounting, Worrells is offering a breakfast seminar series to local solicitors and accountants on topics relevant to them and their clients. They also offer free, in-house 'Worrells Workshops' to local solicitors and accountants on a wide range of insolvency topics.

Unique to Worrells, is their File Information portal, which is password protected and accessible through the Worrells web site so that stakeholders can keep themselves updated on any particular matter they may be involved in with Worrells.

Worrells pride themselves on offering practical solutions to those burdened with debt. Their large investment in state-of-the-art proprietary software streamlines all functions leading to savings, which are passed on by way of competitive pricing.
